LAB-5
Computer Networks
(ECSE208L)

AIM: Design two separate network and connect them using Router in Cisco Packet Tracer

- Design a network-1 consisting of six end devices and Network-2 with seven end devices. Assign IP address and subnet mask to each computer connected to the network.
- Perform the configuration of the Router to connect both the networks created above.
- Establish communication between two networks by sending a PDU between source and destination computers in the networks and observe the flow of the messages.